SITE SPECIFICS

MusicTV.net

As MTV phases out its music-related programming, these sites pick up the slack.

■ LinkTV.org/worldmusic

A nonprofit satellite television network that focuses on global news, Link TV offers an online showcase for music videos and interviews with world-music artists, including Afro-pop duo Amadou and Mariam and Spanish rocker Manu Chao. Also featured are clips of the network's long-form documentaries, which focus on everyone from a European accordion super-group to Brazilian tropicalia legend Caetano Veloso. The downside is that the site only offers shortened samples of Link TV's programming.
